JESUS, I trust in YOU

Original Painting of the Divine Mercy

By Eugeniusz Kazimierowski , 1934

Painting done under the auspices of Saint Faustina

Sunday of Divine Mercy – April 7

Masses on April 6/7 will celebrate the Sunday of Divine Mercy. St. Pope John Paul II named this day, the first Sunday after Easter, when St. Maria Faustina Kowlaska was canonized in 2000. St. Faustina, a Polish nun in early 20th century, had visions of Jesus, which included the direction to have this painting created. The pictured painting was commissioned with St. Faustina guiding the artist. She kept a record of her visions and conversations with Jesus in her diary, called Divine Mercy in My Soul.

Ultimately, the message of Divine Mercy is to: “Ask for His Mercy. Be Merciful. Trust in Jesus.”
